Dear Applicant

37 hours per week to cover Bridlington and Driffield

Thank you for your interest in the above post.

At Hull and East Yorkshire Mind we believe that everyone experiencing a mental health problem deserves both support and respect. We aim to challenge stigmas and strengthen communities. Can you help us to make this happen?

Working across the East Riding you will cover a varied and diverse role. This will consist of multi-agency working and networking to ensure the remit of our service delivery is known. You will assess individuals face to face who are experiencing poor mental wellbeing as an early intervention and provide an empowering, supportive environment. In this work you will need to identify what support will be most meaningful for the individual, which may include appropriate onward signposting. As an organisation we work within a Recovery model and goal setting will be required to identify a supportive framework to provide structured support. You will be required to deliver courses, workshops and peer support groups to provide information, strategies along with reducing social isolation. You may also be required to work one to one in a time limited focussed remit to include online cbt and reading well frameworks. Triaging new referrals and generating referrals local is also a responsibility of this role.

You will need to have excellent problem solving skills and be flexible during one to one appointments and around individual needs. You will be required to manage your own workloads and provide data reporting to evidence your practice. This requires you to have well developed organisational skills to work independently within the projects framework. Monthly reporting to the team leader to demonstrate how the project is being delivered and evaluated along with identifying next steps will be required.

You will receive frequent one to one supervision sessions along with appropriate training.

This is an opportunity to combine wider work based skills through promoting mental health and the work done by Hull and East Yorkshire Mind.

Yours faithfully

Jo Sherriff
Team Leader

Overview of Hull and East Yorkshire Mind

Founded in 1976, we are a well-established voluntary sector organisation with over 40 years of experience delivering services predominantly in the East Riding of Yorkshire and Hull, and more recently in North East Lincolnshire, with some training courses delivered nationally.

Our mission is to meet the needs of people with, or at risk of, poor mental health. In delivering our mission we create positive change in communities and individuals. For the individuals we work with these include improved mental health, increased independence, reduced need for primary and secondary care, a clearer sense of purpose with ambitions for the future, increased self-confidence and a stronger voice for people who are mentally ill that is heard.

We currently deliver a portfolio of services which include:

- Early intervention and prevention work (training, skills, resilience) with individuals, employers, communities and schools.
- Support services including housing, residential therapeutic communities, talking therapies, one to one support and peer support.
- Move on services such as employability, vocational support and independent living skills.

For those engaging with our recovery services we measure change through a three step process:

1. Changes in wellbeing over time through the use of an evidence based tool (WEMWBS or Recovery Star)
2. Agreeing with each person using our recovery services a clearly defined goal
3. At the end of their time with us we work with the individual to assess how successful we have been at helping them achieve that goal and the impact their changed wellbeing and achieved goal has had on their lives.

We benefit from high and increasing levels of public support and recognition. One of our four strategic aims is to change opinions with a specific focus on influencing public policy, ensuring the voice of people using services is heard and general education and awareness is raised.

We have a flexible and motivated workforce of over 90 staff, with 100 active volunteers and a number of social work students on placement. We are governed by a strong Board of Trustees with a wide range of experience.

Our Model of Mental Health Care (REACH)

At Hull and East Yorkshire Mind we believe it's important to understand what good mental health care looks like. This is more than just understanding the services we deliver, it's about the important elements common across all of our work that help us to understand why we work in the way that we do.

Different organisations have different priorities. We have defined ours using a simple framework that includes Relationships, Environment, Activity, Compassion and Hope. We call this REACH.

Relationships

Trusting, caring relationships are a core foundation of our mental wellbeing. To believe we are cared about we need to feel a human connection. Too often public services focus on maintaining artificial boundaries between those delivering and receiving services to the detriment of both sides. We use some common sense with our professional boundaries; if somebody wants a hug we give them one and if somebody wants to hear about our holidays we share what's appropriate. We expect our team to genuinely care for the people they are working with and, if that's not possible, conversations to be had early on about where the problem lies.

Environment

For those visiting our offices and community groups through to people living in our housing, a poor environment encourages poor mental health. If people feel safe, secure and valued they are much more likely to stay well and recover faster. We need to make sure the physical spaces and 'atmosphere' are welcoming. Where possible we need shared spaces and avoid cutting ourselves off in the 'staff offices'. We expect everybody working in our housing to be conscious that these are peoples' homes we are working in and be conscious of how our behaviour impacts on the environment.

Activity

We know that physical activity is vital to our health and wellbeing and that this is often overlooked when considering mental health care. We also know that activity includes many forms of occupation and how important having a role in society is for most of us. Without it we too easily lose our sense of self and worth and any intervention that doesn't address this vital area will always be temporary. All of our services will encourage paid work where possible, voluntary work where not and mainstream learning where appropriate. Our groups, information line and activities will promote physical exercise and the benefits this bring to mental health.

Compassion

Sometimes we're just too hard on ourselves. We see media portrayals of what 'normal' is supposed to be and beat ourselves up because we don't think we meet the standard. We need to get much better at showing compassion, not just to others around us, but also to ourselves. Sometimes it's OK to be different. People using our services come with all sorts of stories and histories. We want our compassionate approach to run through everything we do, from how we answer the phones to replying to emails and one-to-one interactions. To work at Mind, whatever job you are doing, you have to be able to show you care for the people we are here for.
